TEAM READY FOR GEORGETOWN

PLANS FOR JUNIOR WEEK ARE DISCUSSED

Prom, University Reception, Basketball Game and Glee Club Concert Scheduled.

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Prom Tickets To Be Five Dollars; Separate Tickets Required for Glee Club Concert; Reception To Be Informal for Faculty and Students; To Be Held From February 20th to 25th.

Plans for Junior Week were laid last Friday night, January 6, at the meeting of the Junior Class officers at the home of Maxine Girts, when committees were appointed to manage the events scheduled for February 20th to the 25th.

The date of the Junior prom, the gala event of the year, is fixed for Thursday, February 23, and will be staged at Rauscher's. The other events are an informal reception to the whole University, to be held Tuesday, February 21, probably at the Willard. This immediately follows the basketball game, G. W. U. vs. V. M. I., to be played Monday night at the Coliseum, so that the reception will possibly assume the additional and most pleasing nature of a celebration of a basketball victory. To complete the Junior Week calendar the Glee Club will give a concert at the Raleigh on Saturday, February 25, by which time they will be at the height of their preparation of the highest excellence.

The prom tickets will be $5 and may be obtained from John Paul Earnest, director of ticket sales. These tickets will be for the prom only, separate tickets being required for the Glee Club Concert.

Miss Girts, presiding at the meeting of the Junior officers on Friday, announced the following committees: chairman, H. Clarence Churchman, for the general committee for the week; W. Cameron Burton, for the prom committee; Myrtle Yost, for the subcommittee on decorations; Bailee Springston, for the reception committee; Walter Free, for the publicity committee; and John Paul Earnest, director of ticket sales. "Doc" Nagle, who was previously advertised as chairman of the publicity committee before the engineers organized, resigned in favor of Walter Free, recently elected president of the junior engineers.

The following committees were named to carry on the plans for Junior Week: Prom, Columbian College, Cameron Burton (chairman), Virginia Diehl, Thomas Davis, Arthur Nall, Lois Campbell, Frances Foster, Georgia Long, Gladys Fuller; Law School, William Zimmerman, Robert Anderson, Bernard Burdick, Lois McDaris; Medical School, Radford Brown, B. F. Dean; Engineering, Knut Nilsson, A. H. Kampe.

Subcommittee on decoration, Teachers' College, Myrtle Yost (chairman), Jean Stophlet, Margaret Fravel, Ruth Tuckey, Cora Geist.

Reception, Columbian College, Bailee Springston (chairman), Louise Espey, Nell Anderson, James Stretch, Agnes Messer; Law School, Joseph Hazell, Fitzhugh Hurley, James Plak, Frank Myers, Joseph Colburn; Engineering, Russell McAllister, Lewis Klopfer; Medical School, Charles Harnsberger, Terrell Moody; Teachers' College, May Gervais, Helen Faris Myers.

Publicity, Engineering, Walter Free (chairman), Sunny Shreve, Ralph Nagle, Clifton Whyte, Daniel Lloyd; Law School, Ronald Cates; Medical School, Stanley Wanlass, Russell Poster; Columbian College, Mary Brown, Asenath Johnson, Joseph Palmer, Kirk Mears.

ACTIVE SPHINX SOCIETY INDORSES HONOR SYSTEM

The Sphinx Honor Society is maintaining its high standard of work in the several activities by lending active support to the new honor system and by planning cooperation with the University when the endowment fund campaign gets under way in the spring.

The present members are Helen Mankey, Elizabeth Earnest, Sarah Thigman, Gladys Twele, and Martha McGrew, an active alumni.

Musical Comedy Notice

After tonight, January 13, 1922, rehearsals for musical comedy will be closed to all but cast. Anyone having business or queries concerning it will see Mr. Becker in Lisner Hall chapel Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from 11 a. m. to 12.30 p. m.

MUSICAL CO. GIVES "HOLD EVERYTHING"

Cast Selected and Chorus Is Being Trained by Prominent New York Professional Director.

"Hold Everything" has been decided upon as the title for the musical comedy to be given by the students of George Washington University at a local theatre within a few months. Dorothy Waters has been chosen to play the leading role, and Irving Brotman will share with her the headline honors. The leading comedy parts have been assigned to "Charlie" Talbot and "Ed" Wheeler. Emma Tom, Fusch and Robert Baker will take the second leads. The remainder of the cast is still to be chosen.

Since the holidays the dancing chorus has been doing some intensive training. The work is under the personal direction of Mr. Bernard, formerly a chorus director for "Ho" Ziegfeld, guiding spirit of the world-famed "Follies." During the war Mr. Bernard trained the dancing chorus for several of the musical comedies that were given by the boys of the A. E. F. He is making the dancing chorus work, for he knows that is the only way to secure the best results. Twenty-five new candidates are attending rehearsals regularly, but Mr. Bernard must have at least ten more girls and ten more boys.

The next rehearsal for the dancing chorus will be held in the chapel tonight at 8 p. m. Regular rehearsals will be discontinued until after the examination period. Work will be resumed Monday night, January 30. From that time until the production is staged rehearsals will be held in Lisner Hall on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings.

Music for the show has been furnished by Harold E. Kroll, of Cleveland, Ohio, a musical score writer for Cecil B. DeMille's productions, and work on the lyrics is being rushed to completion. Leon Katz has composed the lyrics for two songs in the show. It is planned to make the music one of the strongest features of the production, and many catchy songs are promised.

CROWDED CONDITIONS PREVENT MANY FROM ENTERING IN FEBRUARY

Few New Classes To Be Started at Midyear Semester of George Washington University.

"Crowded conditions at George Washington will prevent any applicants except those from the high standard preparation schools who are able to show unusual qualifications from entering the University in February," said President Hodgkins.

Especially is this true of those seeking admission to any of the freshman classes. Columbian College, being the most crowded, will be the most difficult to enter. Last February more than 300 made their debut to the University. With the increased popularity of George Washington, it is estimated more than 500 will seek admission, of which not more than 350 can be accommodated.

No classes will be begun in chemistry nor many of the other sciences. Students desiring to enter with advanced standing probably will have less difficulty in arranging their program. In none of the colleges will much choice be allowed.

G. W. CLUB TO MEET.

An important meeting of the G. W. Club will be held on Sunday, January 15, in the alumni room of the Law School at 3 p. m. Hatcher, acting as president, emphasized the fact every man who has won his major letter in any sport is eligible to membership, whether he is now attending school or not. The club picture for the Cherry Tree will be taken in a few days, and the officers hope to enroll every holder of the G. W. before that time.

LAW SENATE ADOPTS HONOR CONSTITUTION

Faculty Fails to Ratify Student Council Code Because It Needs Simplification.

Action on the honor constitution has been held up by Deans Wilbur and Ruediger, who propose simplifications on the present reading of the constitution as presented by the Student Council committee.

The Law School senate took up the question of a code of honor at its December meeting, held at the Law School. Mr. Ross read a proposed code of honor, which he had prepared, containing eight items coming within the spirit of the honor system. These were somewhat amended by other members and finally accepted as follows:

"Be it resolved, by the senate of George Washington University Law School, that the following principles be submitted to the student body with the recommendations of the senate that they be adopted as the fundamental policy of the honor system in this school. The commission of any of the following acts shall constitute a violation of our code of honor, they being contrary to the high principle of ethics upon which our profession stands:

"1. Giving or receiving any unauthorized aid in connection with any examination.

"2. Answering any call in class for another.

"3. Reciting from an abstract of a case prepared entirely by another student.

"4. Violating the rules of the library in reference to removing books.

"5. Leaving class after roll call without notification to the instructor, prior or subsequent.

"6. Purchasing or distributing lecture notes to be used for the purpose

ACTIVITIES MANAGERS DISCUSS FUTURE PLAN

Checking of Finance Is Explained To Hold Informal Gathering Each Month.

Double checking of expenditures and receipts for all G. W. U. athletic teams and organizations was explained at a meeting January 5 of the managers of every major and minor activity called by Bryan Morse, Director of Student Activities, in preparing for the new system to be in charge of the Treasurer's office the second semester. The meeting was so effective in the solution of problems of the various activities that it was decided they would meet informally twice a month. The chief purpose of these gatherings will be to boost the spirit in each separate organization and to create more coordination between them.

"By double checking our finances we shall have accurate facilities of our own in two or three years," declared Bryan Morse. "Our rentals alone, including needs of fraternities, etc., amount to more than $6,000 a year." He also pointed out that the teams and other activities were constantly being delayed and hampered in their work because of lack of facilities, "preventing them from being winners."

Here is the double-checking plan: All receipts will be paid directly to the student activities fund and will be credited to the paying activity, which

LAW FROSH PLAN PARTY.

Law frosh party plans will include, besides the dancing which will hold sway the major part of the evening, snappy speeches by leaders of the law classes, the dean of the Law School, and several other honored guests, at a mixer to be held in the chapel of Lisner Hall on Monday, January 16, 1922. All Columbian College girls are especially invited.

Get Your Picture Taken!

Have you had your picture taken for the Cherry Tree? You have until the 15th to have it taken for $2, and after that the price will be $2.50. No pictures will be taken after February 1.

Game Expected To Be Hard Fought From Beginning to End; Take on Catholic University Latter Part of Same Week; Both Should Be Well Attended by Students.

Basketball will reign supreme next week, when the Hatchetites meet two of their most bitter rivals in a space of four days at the Coliseum, Ninth and Pennsylvania Avenue. On Tuesday, January 17, at 9 p. m. conclusions will be tried with Georgetown, and on Friday, January 20, the locals will try their wares against Catholic University.

The Hatchetites having rung up three straight victories, feel confident of giving both teams a run for their money. Altrup, Daily, Hughes, Gosnell and Bracklow

G. W. CO-EDS DEFEAT WILSON NORMAL, 15-9

Team Shows Skill in Passing; Student Support Good; Meet Temple Next.

A 15 to 9 victory marked the first game of the season played by the G. W. girls basketball team when they defeated Wilson Normal. The local team was met and defeated last Saturday evening at Central High gym. The local team, despite the fact it had been organized only recently and had held but two good practice games previous to the game, showed particular skill in passing, and remarkable teamwork characterized its playing throughout. In the average game, there are outstanding players who seem to do all the work, but in this case all remarked upon the fact each individual was good and the team worked as a whole.

The game was played in thirds in place of the usual halves, an innovation suggested by the referee. At the end of the first third the score was 4-2 in favor of the Buff and Blue co-eds, who gained steadily throughout the rest of the game. The count next stood 11-7, and at the end of the last third the G. W. U. girls emerged victorious and were received amid cheers by their supporters.

Student support was good, but more should come out to future frays and lend lung power for the sake of the co-ed fighters. The girls have proved themselves well worth coming out to see, and a large number are expected to witness the next game on January 21, when the local team is scheduled to meet Temple College at Central High gym.

G. W. ALCHEMISTS HOLD CHRISTMAS BANQUET

History of Society Related; Reorganizing Order Founded in 1910.

The annual banquet of the Alchemists was held on December 21, at the Cairo Apartments. It was the first step in organizing the annual banquet to the Pyramids in search of a sacred vessel lost some centuries ago in a sandstorm by unfaithful and irresponsible followers. From all evidence shown, the pilgrimage will be this year more successful than it has been in the past few years. The Alchemists were forced to become practically inactive during and immediately after the world war.

As some of our readers may not be familiar with the history of this organization, it may be said that it was instituted at George Washington in 1910 as "The Ancient and Accepted Order of the Mystic Adepts of the Sacred Art," later being known as "The Alchemists." The members claim a long lineage and one of the ancient writers, speaking of the Mysteries of Isis and Anubis, stated that Adam was probably the first alchemist—certainly Hermes Mercurius Trismigistus was an adept.

After the banquet, a collection was taken up for the patients in the free ward of the George Washington Hospital in order that they might enjoy a bit of Christmas cheer so enjoyed by the more fortunate of us.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES CUT AS STUDENTS "CRAM"

Students of the University are busy preparing for the midyear examinations, which start January 23 and continue for a week. Those who have kept up to date with their studies will have little to fear, but woe to those who have waited until the last week to "CRAM." Few social activities are to be expected until the coming week of torture is passed, for obvious reasons.

probably will start for G. W., with Annuario, Spears and Goldstein, likely to get in the game.

Georgetown has gotten a late start, owing to the illness of their coach, and has as yet played no college teams, thus it is difficult to get a line on the Hilltoppers. However, Captain O'Connell will probably start at center, with Florence and Flavin at forwards and Dudaek as a probable starter at guard. It is possible that Flavin will be unable to play, not having recovered from injuries received at football.

The game will be preceded by a preliminary in which the strong Congress Hatchets Yankees will play the American Legion.

Three days later, Catholic University quint will travel in from Brookland for a little argument on the court. C. U. has played about five games so far, and has not met with any large degree of success, although they easily outclassed Gallandet.

From the dope it looks as though the Hatchetites and Brooklanders will have a pretty tussle before the decision is reached.

HONOR FRAT ADVOCATES COMPULSORY TAX AT G. W.

Gamma Tau Zeta Urges All To Subscribe To Activity Fund To Benefit Both School and Self.

The following letter, advocating a compulsory tax system for George Washington University has been received from Gamma Tau Zeta, honorary journalistic fraternity. The inadequacy of the voluntary tax system has been common knowledge among those interested in student activities for a considerable time and this letter is one of the first indications of a crystallization of sentiment for a compulsory tax.

"Editor, University Hatchet: Without a doubt the greatest advertisement a university can have is a full list of wide-awake student activities. By a well rounded number of activities every student in the university has a chance to find his 'place,' and by so filling his 'place' benefit both himself and the university. Thus by benefiting himself he does that which is of as great importance—he does his share in building up his university.

"Every proper activity has its place on the university campus. A university is just as apt to get benefit from one activity as from another. As just a few examples of this statement we might mention the football team of Centre, 'The Widow' of Cornell, the glee club of Columbia, and the dramatic club of the University of Pennsylvania.

"A university is what the students make of it, and they cannot get the best results unless they have the financial backing to work upon.

"Gamma Tau Zeta, honorary journalistic fraternity, realizes how important it is to have a compulsory student tax at George Washington. This is necessary in order that the student activities may have the financial support they require, as the present system of taxation does not adequately meet the needs.

"Therefore the fraternity strongly advocates a compulsory tax system for this University, beginning in October, 1922, and resolves that it is willing to lend all of its support toward accomplishing this end, that we may have a greater George Washington."

"GAMMA TAU ZETA."

A Token of Respect

In many universities it has become a custom for students to tip their hats to the professors in recognition and respect for their position. This not only fosters a higher morale among the students but promotes a better understanding between the students and the faculty. It produces in the students a feeling of appreciation for these men and for the university.

Alike to the token of respect which a man pays a lady with whom he is acquainted on meeting her in public, it is also similar to the salute which a soldier of subordinate rank extends his superior. This symbol of recognition is an indication of homage offered to a person to whom you feel inferior and to whom you wish to pay as much respect as possible.

Students of George Washington University should tender this token of recognition to their professors in realizing that it is upon them that the weight of sustaining the scholastic standard of the school falls. The faculty and trustees of this University should constitute superior body and should be so recognized by the students.

The least we can do to accomplish this purpose is to tip our hats to these men on meeting them in public. This should be extremely important to us as students in George Washington because we have no other means of paying honor to those whom we respect. Let us take up this custom and allow it to become a part of us so that in future generations students may revere all the more the name of George Washington University.

Support Girls' Sports

Although athletics in which girls may participate have not the national scope and interest which characterizes those in which men take part, they should be supported locally. With the development of better sports in G. W. U. we must not overlook the part that the girls' teams are playing. The girls' basketball team has already one scalp of victory and promises to enlarge its collection before the season is over. The swimming team is steadfastly practicing in anticipation of victory in their schedule meets. Even if we are unable to attend the games in which our team participates, let us give them the best support we can in every way possible, and endeavor to show them that we appreciate what they are doing for George Washington University.

MAIL PILES UP IN OFFICE. JOURNALISTS HOLD DANCE.

Uncalled for mail is in the general office at 2021 G Street for Jack Harvey, Eugene Mullins, R. C. Stokes, Elizabeth M. O'Neill and J. L. Parks.

This mail should be called for at once, as it will only be held in the office a short time and if not claimed will be returned to the senders.

Staff members of The Hatchet, the Ghost and the Cherry Tree banished dull care away last Saturday night, January 7, while they danced at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House, 3320 Sixteenth Street Northwest. Prof. and Mrs. H. G. Doyle and Prof. and Mrs. Walter Clephane were the chaperones.

STUPID SLAVE SAYS:

The request filed by the Ghost staff for a stove for the office has now been withdrawn. Since the December issue the dean has kept it hot enough.

"Hank" Miller was cut about the right hip when he slipped on the ice and fell in front of school. His first remark was, as he arose, "Ye gods! I hope it's blood."

Bob Bolton, when making a phone call the other day, slammed the phone so hard that the long-distance operator answered.

Dear Stupid: Please tell me who wrote "The Bat."

Houdini.

Dear Houdini: Your ignorance is refreshing, but for your information, Babe Ruth wrote it.

Dear Mr. Stephen: Do you favor disarmament?

Betty.

Dear Betty: Yes; then we won't have any Annapolis or West Point; but it will be hard on some ladies who depend on Navy trinkets for decorations and support.

Dear Stupe: Several times I have noticed a yellow taxicab drive up to school and a young lady get out, always the same girl. Do you know who she is?

Ambitious.

Dear Ambitious: No, I don't; but I'd like to "meter."

Dear Steve: I wonder what kind of cigarettes Rodolpho Valentine smokes.

Fred H.

Dear Fred: Listen, this isn't a movie magazine. If he is the bird I think, the one who starred in "The Shiek," I suppose he smokes Camels.

BUFF & BLUE EASILY OUTCLASS SILENTS

Former Tech High Star Scores 24 of 30 Points for Hatchettes.
Result Never in Doubt.

Gallaudet met G. W. and defeat in a stirring 30-12 basketball walk-away of the Coliseum last Friday, January 6. Out-played from the start our erstwhile football foes tried in vain to stem the assaults of the Hatchettes, but it couldn't be done.

Gosnell was the chief scorer of the fray, 24 of the 30 points being registered by the former Tech star. With remarkable keenness and judgment he appeared at the right spot every time, eluding the Gallaudet guards almost at will. His best shot was made toward the end of the game when he counted a basket from the middle of the floor.

Jack Daily also showed up well.
Although he was working under the handicap of a very painful ankle, the captain directed the action with skill and foresight.

BOTH TEAMS SHOW STRONG DEFENSIVE

Bracklow Leads Way in Shooting Baskets From Floor; Foul Shots Prove Margin of Victory.

Presenting a clever passing and five-man defense, the Hatchettes downed the fast traveling William and Mary quint 24—21 at the Coliseum, January 10. The Indians tossed in more baskets from the floor, but failure to consistently count from the foul line prevented them from winning.

Felix Altrup started the scoring by getting a hoopster from the side of the court. From this time on the Buff and Blue was never headed. In the first period the visitors had difficulty in shooting, being unable to break through the five-man defense. A little later in the game the guards, notably Hughes, in their anxiety to toss a basket, left their goal uncovered, allowing William and Mary to gather several easy shots, at one time three in a row, nearly overtaking G. W.'s lead.

Bracklow led in tossing baskets, gathering in three, closely followed by Altrup with two. Gosnell's luck was against him in shooting from the floor, being able to net only one, but he amply made up for this—in fact, furnished the deciding factor of the game—when he tossed in 10 fouls out of 16 attempts. Both teams were especially strong on defense, keeping the score low.

URGES STUDENT TO PROCURE YEAR BOOK FOR REMINDER

Should Get Cherry Tree Because of Its Sentimental Value in Years to Come; Last Chance March 1.

"Believe me, that boy is a wonder," chuckled the proud father as he read of the popularity of his son and saw pictures of him in action with the football team on the day the great classic was being played.

Turning to the sweet-faced, motherly woman, who was looking with pride over his shoulder at the picture of her boy, he said: "Pshaw! These young people don't appreciate what a book like this means now, but later on in life they will be more than glad to have a reminder of their college days."

All over the country during the summer months, in large cities and small towns, in villages and on the farm, proud parents will be looking over the pages of the college annuals, as in these books they will find the only visualization of the college activities of their sons and daughters.

Do you realize that your college annual is your only permanent record of your school years? Years later you will prize it because of its sentimental, intrinsic value, because it will revive memories that are dear to you—years of adventure, days of struggle, days of happiness, and all the things that one goes through during the four years of college life.

A noted educator says: "Four years of college life are in reality dream years, they are the best years of one's life; the bitter struggle in the competitive world comes before one realizes it. The friends that one makes during these college days scatter to the four winds, each to play a prominent part in the grand scheme of things."

What this educator says is absolutely true. The college halls, the athletic fields with their crowds of hurrying, enthusiastic students, the gay sorority and fraternity houses, all fade away in the years to come, just like a mirage in the desert. Only one thing remains—that is your college annual.

Your 1922 Cherry Tree will be a book that will be radically different.

GIRL SWIMMERS TRAIN FOR RED CROSS TESTS

Training of G. W. U. girl swimmers for the American Red Cross life-saving test will start today at Central High pools, at 5 p. m., under the direction of Coach "Bee" Woodford, and continue until the first week in February, when the examination for the World's Life-Saving Corps will be given.

The work being done by the girls is coming up to expectations, according to Miss Woodford. Particular praise is given Portia Clifford and Catharine Hough for their unusually enthusiastic work. Last week's practice was devoted to the crawl stroke and diving, while today's work will include the 50-yard and 220-yard swims.

MISSSES FIRST CLASS IN 20 YEARS OF TEACHING

Prof. H. C. McNeil, head of the department of chemistry, missed meeting his first class in twenty years of college work when he was compelled to appear before the grand jury investigating the case of the two janitors who are alleged to have stolen platinum from the University, thus being unable to give the usual lecture to his freshman class Tuesday morning, January 10. This record is probably unparalleled—one "cut" in twenty years.

NEW LEGAL FRATERNITY ASKS FOR RECOGNITION

Petition for recognition of a new legal fraternity, Kappa Pi Kappa, was presented to the Student Council at the meeting last Tuesday night. The council authorized the secretary to send a letter of recognition to the petitioners. The petitioners are Edwin
A. Loop, J. Fuller Spoerri, Malcolm B.
Wisehart, Clio L. Kem, Raymond B.
Harding, Russell B. Benson, James H.
Duggan, Jr., Robert L. Savage, Jr., Samuel U. Markley, Louis M. Churbuck, Harold L. Norcross, Ralph G.
Stetson, Edw. L. Scheufler, Robert W.
Pulliam, W. E. G. Hamilton.

PHYSICIANS ENTERTAIN AT NEW YEAR'S DANCE

Many prominent physicians of the city and faculty members of Medical School attended a New Year's dance at the Washington Hotel on Thursday, January 5, 1922, given by the Alpha Zeta chapter of Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity. Among the notables present were Dr. Oscar Benwood Hunter, assistant dean of the Medical School; Prof. Roe, Dr. Barnes, Dr. W. C.
Gwynn, Dr. U. J. Daniels and Dr. A. P.
Tibbets.

TO SELECT SENIOR PIN.

Selection of one of the bids for senior pins will be announced soon, according to Malcolm Wiseheart, committee chairman. All seniors are urged to attend the meeting in Lisner Hall next Wednesday night, where this matter will be discussed and a probable announcement of the successful bid will be made.

will be given a receipt through the University. Likewise, all expenditures will be recorded and checked with the credits by means of vouchers. In this way every organization will know exactly how they stand and why.

Self-perpetuation of the different activities was next discussed. It was asserted that many of the important positions as managers and editors did not encourage sufficient rivalry. These offices are responsible and difficult to fill, so that a "careful selection of managers" is absolutely necessary, according to Mr. Morse, an opinion which the managers present agreed to.

The remedy decided upon was that each manager and editor should have a first assistant who should, as close to him, be capable to competently fill his place. This will also make for greater competition, it was thought.

These informal meetings of the managers are expected to do a great deal of good, as the opinions of all may be obtained in this gathering. At the last meeting, for instance, Carl Peterson submitted the question as to how the different organizations should be represented in the Cherry Tree. It was decided, after discussion, that part of the money necessary for this could be included in the budget of the major activities, while the others could probably raise theirs by a flat sum placed upon each member.

New and attractive features have been prepared that will make your eyes open in amazement. The art work will be a most eloquent flight beyond what has appeared in the past.

There is to be only a limited number of books obtainable. Don't fail to order yours before March 1, as after that time the chance to get your copy will be gone forever.
Think it over!

G. W. RIFLEMEN FAIL TO SECURE RANGE

Plan to Enter Meet in Spring Against Navy, Georgetown, Maryland and Johns Hopkins.

The University's rifle team is up against it for a range in which to shoot the National Intercollegiate Rifle Match. W. R. Stokes, captain of the team, has been trying for three months to find the Hatchette squad a range, but to no avail. An attempt was made to get the range of one of the high schools one night a week, but this was vetoed by Superintendent of Schools Ballou. No place in the University buildings has been found which would serve the purpose of a rifle range, and unless the team can obtain the use of one of the building built by the Government during the war G. W.'s hope of a championship in indoor rifle shooting seems lost.

This spring it is planned that the Hatchettes will shoot an outdoor match against the Navy, Georgetown, Johns Hopkins, and Maryland on the Navy range at Annapolis.

SOCIETY EDITOR SPEAKS TO JOURNALISM CLASS

Interesting stories of Capital life and society were told to the journalism class by Mrs. Pickett, society editor of The Evening Star, in an address Monday evening, January 9.

Many amusing accounts of the errors that creep into the society column, sometimes one might imagine intentional on the part of the printer, and other natural mistakes were related which kept the class interested and amused.

Mrs. Pickett started newspaper work by writing stories for space rates and was able to support herself, three children and an invalid on the money she made in this way. She advised the girls not to enter newspaper work, as it is a hard game with few if any courtesies shown to them.

GLEE CLUB SINGS FOR BRITISH AMBASSADOR

George Washington University contributed its share to the Christmas gayety of the city through its Glee Club, who participated in the annual holiday week celebrations at E. F.
Keith's Theatre.

They sang every day to an enthusiastic audience of children and grown-ups, costumed as Old English Choristers, and made a very effective appearance. Such an effective showing did they make that they had the signal honor of being asked to sing for the ambassador of Great Britain and Lady Geddes, at the Embassy on Connecticut Avenue, on Christmas Eve. Their program consisted mostly of Old English folk songs, such as have been sung in England at Christmas time for centuries. They were warmly received by an appreciative gathering of some of the most cultured and socially important people in Washington.

G. W. ARTS CLUB OBTAINS BOHEMIAN QUARTERS

If art interferes with examinations, cut out the art. Accordingly, it was announced by the Arts Club that the meeting held January 4 would be the only one held in January. Two meetings, however, were announced for February, the dates to be given out later.

Bohemian quarters have now been secured, located at Seventeenth and H Streets Northwest, and plans are on foot for artistic decorations and furnishings. Winifred DeVoe, president of the club, requests that membership dues of $1 be forwarded to her promptly. By cooperating in this way it is hoped the new quarters may be made ready for early occupancy.

It was also announced at the recent meeting that a box would be placed at the bulletin board in Lisner Hall to receive the sketches which must accompany applications for membership.
Just simple sketches are required.

LAW SECRETARY RESIGNS.

John W. Townsend, secretary of the Law School since August, 1920, resigned on December 31, 1921, to engage in law practice in this city. He will have offices in the Albee Building, being associated with James C. Peacock. He will continue, however, as an instructor in the Law School for the remainder of the year.

Mr. Townsend has made a distinguished success of his career at G. W.
In 1920 he was senior marshal, president of the Pyramid Honor Society and chairman of the Interfraternity prom.
He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and obtained his LL. M. at Law School this year.

Joseph A. Jordan will succeed Mr.
Townsend as secretary of the Law School. Mr. Jordan was an honor man of last year's first law class.

TRACK TEAM T ENTER SEVEN MEETS IN SPRING

Thirty Candidates Report First Meeting; Compete at Hopkins Feb. 25.

Starting with the Johns Hopkins University indoor meet, which will be held February 25, the Hatchette track team is expected to participate in seven meets this season. Meets will be held with Georgetown, March 3, and a week later Catholic University will be met on the cinder path.

The quadrangular meet between Georgetown, University of Maryland, Catholic University and George Washington will be held April 22. On the 29th of April the team will engage in the Penn relays at Philadelphia. Negotiations are under way for a dual meet with Gallaudet College the 6th of May.

Charlottesville, Va., will be the scene of the South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association meet this year, which will be held the 14th of May, winding up the track season for the Buff and Blue.

Thirty men reported to the meeting held Monday evening, January 9, at which plans for the season were discussed.

ADVOCATE LARGER PAPER.

At the meeting of the Interfraternity Association at the Sigma Nu Fraternity House on January 8, a resolution was unanimously passed pointing to a larger and greater university paper, provided adequate funds can be secured to make it possible. The resolution advocated that the news space of the Hatchet be increased from 5 columns, as it is now, to 7 columns.

Robert Morgan, Phi Alpha Delta, was elected president, to fill the vacancy made by William L. Neill, who returned home.

A. F. OF L. SECRETARY ADDRESSES FREE LANCERS

At the meeting of the "Free Lancers," an organization founded for the purpose of discussing the several questions of political, social, economic and labor troubles in which the public of the country is interested, held January 4, Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, addressed the society on "The Trade-Union Movement."

The speaker was introduced by President Byars, of the "Free Lancers," who briefly outlined the interests and aims of the organization and said that Mr. Morrison would welcome questions, at the end of his address, which brought forth much lively discussion.

FORM NEW SORORITY.

A new sorority has been formed at George Washington University under the name of "Phi Lambda Mu. Although the sorority has actually been in existence for more than a year, its various members did not desire to make public their organization until it was complete in every respect and the time deemed most propitious. The charter members are Hattie Wolf, Jean Himmelfarb, Elizabeth Tepper, Rebecca Perlman and Ethel Wolpe. The sorority has already initiated Sonia Yosgour, Anna Goldman, Frances Robbin and Marion Sokolove and has pledged Tessie Epstein, Esther Kaplan, Reva Silver, Ethel Wolf, Bertha Abramson, Rose Hirschman, Helen Kaminsky, Rebecca Kaminsky and Sarah Bernsten.

BREAKFAST AT THE BUNNY HOLE

Maybe you didn't hear Big Ben's shrill rat-a-tat or else pappa didn't call very loudly or maybe sister was peevish and didn't punch you; anyway, you got up at ten minutes of nine and got dressed by nine and beat it out to a car to hit the nine-fifteen on time. Maybe you got there all right, but all the time your poor tummy felt awfully outraged and you answered, "Si, Si" at the very time you should have answered "No, No!" And by ten-fifteen you felt all weak and like you could betray your best friend or sweetie for a ham sandwich or a hunk of cake. Then maybe by noon you were grouchy and the "whole day was ruined."

Now, this is a deplorable condition, but from now on you don't have to suffer all the tortments. Just go down to the Rabbit Hole and get your breakfast. The Bunnie's cage is serving sandwiches and coffee and milk and candy for the very people who start the day wrong by not eating breakfast.
High pools, at 6 p. m., under the direction of the Hole will cater to your breakfastless inside. Drop in and see.

EXAMS ARE POSTED.

Examinations in all departments, with a few exceptions, are posted on all bulletin boards in the University for the benefit of students. Examinations will be held January 23 to 30.

WRESTLERS TO GRAPPLE GALLAUDET'S MATMEN

Wrestling will get under way in the latter part of February, when the Hatchette grapplers try grips with the Gallaudet matmen.

The team has been working out hard lately, and should be able to give a good account of themselves.

Manager Hatcher announced that he has matches pending with several large colleges, and in a short time he will announce a complete schedule.

HEARD THROUGHOUT THE COLLEGIATE WORLD

Yale.

Students in the Sheffield Scientific School who maintain high ranks in their studies will receive a reduction of $100 on their tuition fee.

Dartmouth.

Reducing the freshman class from 5,000 applicants to 500 students is one of the big problems at Dartmouth.
The choice will be based upon scholarship, character, qualities of leadership and some minor details.

Randolph-Macon.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College possesses six wireless telegraph and telephone apparatus by means of which concerts given in Carnegie Hall, Pittsburgh, may be heard every evening.

University of Kansas.

Filipino students of the University of Kansas observed Rizal Day during the holidays with speeches and music.
Rizal is to the Filipinos what Washington is to Americans.

Syracuse U.

Initiating the conference on limitation of armaments is the latest feature of the meetings of the Historical Associations and International Relations Club of Syracuse University.

University of Wisconsin.

Hazing of freshmen has been discontinued in the University of Wisconsin. The sophomore class voted to accept the recommendation to do away with this form of rivalry.

University of Delaware.

"Studying" was the subject of the third of a series of "talks" to freshmen by members of the English department of Delaware University.

Vermont University.

In the recent trans-Atlantic tests of the American Radio Relay League, composed of amateur radio operators, the first two messages were received near Glasgow, Scotland, from the University of Vermont's radio station.

INSTRUCTOR RESIGNS.

A change of instructors has taken place in the Nurses' College. Miss Gust, an instructor, has resigned to take the position as superintendent at the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital and Thelma Melton was made instructress at the school this year.

ENOSINIAN TO CELEBRATE CEN- TENNIAL.

Action on the space to be used in the Cherry Tree, postponement of the next regular meeting of the society a week, and appointment of a committee on the celebration of the centennial of the society, constituted the business of the Enosinian Society at their regular meeting Monday, January 9.
